1. All information on this report should be based on actual records which will substantiate and prove the accuracy of the return as made on this form and are required to be kept for three (3) years and open to examination by the North Little Rock Advertising & Promotion Commission or its agent. Unless otherwise instructed, the total receipts to be reported in this return for computation of tax due are the gross receipts on prepared food of such business including cash, credit cards, checks, and other payments. DUE DATE: The taxpayer must deliver this form and payment to the NLR A & P Commission on or before the first day of the month following the month tax was collected. (Example: the tax is charged to the customer in January, and is due no later than March 1 to the NLR A & P Commission.)

2a. DISCOUNT: The taxpayer must deliver this form and payment to the NLR A & P Commission on or before the 20th of each month for taxes collected the previous month to receive the 2% discount. If tax remittance is mailed, it must be postmarked by the 20th of the month. (Example: the tax is charged to the customer in January, and must be received/postmarked February 20 by the A & P Commission to receive the discount.)

2b. PENALTIES & TAX: If the tax is not paid before the last day of the month taxes are due, a 5% penalty will be charged for each month past due up to 35% in aggregate; in addition to the penalty assessed, simple interest on any unpaid A & P Tax shall be assessed at the rate of 10% per annum from the delinquency date. If the tax remittance is mailed, it must be postmarked on or before the last day of the month taxes are due. (Example, the tax is charged to the customer in January, then the remittance to the A & P Commission is March 1. Any date after the 1st is late and the penalty is due.
